The Solomon Case.

Great interest is being manifested in the trial of Sheriff Simon Solomon, of Henrico, which will begin next Monday in the County Court. The forty men from whom the jury will be chosen have all been summoned by Coroner James.

Mr. Wyndham Meredith has been engaged to represent the Passenger and Power Company, and Mr. George Bryan will appear for the Commonwealth. Judge Sims, of Louisa, will preside. Among the witnesses will be Judge Wickham, Commonwealth's Attorney Sands, the attorneys for the Passenger and Power Company and others.

Mr. Solomon will be represented by Messrs. Hill Carter and H. M. Smith. the trial of Sheriff Simon Solomon, of

The two negro men, Ed. Pulliam and John Balthrop, arrested Wednesday night as suspicious characters and supposed to have some connection with the Chesterfield affair, are in the city jail for the field affgir, are in the city Jail for the Present.

When the cases were called in the Police Court yesterday morning, it was decided to hold the negroes over until this morning until they could be identified. It is generally believed that they will be found to be mere tramps, without any connection with the attempted assault. Neither of them seems to fit the description exactly. Pulliam was fined $450 by Justice Crutchfield for carrying concealed weapon.
